Professional Experience

A graduate from the University of Alberta, Adrian earned a degree at the School of Business in Finance and achieved the Claudette J. de Bruijn Business Co-op Student of the year award upon graduating. Joining the commercial Real Estate industry in 2010 working for a local brokerage, Adrian consistently earned the merit of being a top performer year over year and has recently made the transition over to Cushman & Wakefield Edmonton after working for the DTZ Edmonton Office. He is experienced in the acquisition and disposition of Industrial and Investment properties within Alberta, and advises clients through the valuation, negotiation, due diligence and closing processes. Adrian is relied upon by a growing list of local, national and international companies for his commitment to service, professionalism, attention to detail and ability to provide solutions to specific client requirements.
