Professional Experience

Trisha started with Cushman & Wakefield as an office administrator in May 2019. Having spent much of her childhood in Edmonton, she has a strong attachment to the city and brings that passion to her work in the commercial real estate community. Trisha graduated from the University of Alberta with a B. Com in Marketing in 2017. During her time as an undergraduate, she kept busy by serving on volunteer committees, participating in case competitions, and organizing numerous events for the Alberta School of Business. Trisha loves meeting new people and getting to know them. In her spare time, she likes to travel, spend time with family & friends, and enjoy the outdoors. She remains involved with the University community, volunteering her time to coach and judge student case competitions.
