Professional Experience

Prior to joining the Cushman & Wakefield Edmonton Retail Services division, Rick was the Director of Store Development for Booster Juice Corporation. In his tenure with the company Rick developed over 180 franchise locations across Canada and International markets. Rick has held other executive positions with companies including Caffe Sorrentino. Rick is now a part of the Cushman & Wakefield retail efforts in Edmonton, working closely with all associates on local and national retail leasing.

Rick has developed strong working relationships with many local and national retailers and is highly skilled in the process of negotiating transactions. Over the years, Rick has built a strong reputation based on integrity and knowledge and is considered a strong representative for his client.
