Professional Experience

Patrick Livingston joined Cushman & Wakefield Edmonton in 2015 as an associate and specializes in industrial sales and leasing. Upon joining the firm, Mr. Livingston made an immediate impact on the company as a driven and diligent developing real estate professional. In a short period of time, Patrick has been able to distinguish himself through his knowledge of the market and dedication to each assignment. Since then, Patrick has been involved in several corporate and local business relocations, acquisitions and dispositions.

Patrick routinely engages landlords, tenants, developers and other members of the brokerage community to ensure his clients have the most accurate market information for every step in each transaction. Providing quality information and excellent service is very important to Patrick as he works hard to ensure his clients are well informed and can make educated and timely real estate decisions. The Greater Edmonton Industrial Market is rapidly evolving and it is important to have innovative and informed people in your corner.
