Professional Experience

Nicholas Hrebien is a new addition to the Cushman & Wakefield Edmonton office team. He is a very driven and motivated international business graduate from Grant Macewan University, who is ready to take his next step in the office sales & leasing industry. During his time at Grant Macewan, Nicholas managed various bars/restaurants in the downtown core which led him to form various business relationships, ensuring customer growth and loyalty, and developing expertise in many areas within the sales industry. Nicholas strongly believes that the commercial real estate industry provides unique opportunities which are extremely rewarding whether he is helping clients renew their leases, relocate their office, and buy and/or sell their properties. In his free time he volunteers at St. Albert Catholic High School coaching the men's basketball team.
