Professional Experience

Cal comes to Cushman and Wakefield Edmonton after a successful career in the oil and gas sector.

He grew up on the south side of Edmonton. After graduating from the University of Calgary, Cal began a career in teaching. Cal and his wife Cindy remained in Calgary where they raised three children.

In 1998 Cal transitioned from teacher to sales in the oil and gas service sector. After teaming up with his business partner in 2002 they formed an oilfield service company which operated successfully for twelve years in the greater Edmonton area. Upon selling the company in 2014, Cal and Cindy moved to Vernon BC.

Having been back in Edmonton for a few years now, Cal has focused his professional time specializing in Industrial Real Estate working with companies much like the one he owned, find the right real estate for their business.
