Professional Experience

Kennedy is an Associate on the Industrial Team at Cushman & Wakefield Edmonton. She began her career in brokerage in May of 2017 as an Executive Assistant to a top performing partner within the firm and moving on to the role of Associate in 2018. Kennedy focuses on both Landlord and Tenant representation and has successfully completed numerous transactions in the greater Edmonton area. She prides herself on having a highly personalized approach; working diligently to understand her clients' needs, providing creative solutions, and delivering results. Kennedy has always called Edmonton home and spends as much of her free time as possible with her son and family in the mountains of Alberta and at the lake in British Columbia.
