Professional Experience

Marino has worked in sales, international marketing, and management consulting for the past 11 years. Before launching his career in commercial real estate he was involved with many large international based firms & served as President and Owner of Flexlite Canada Inc., Choice Sound, The Omega Financial Consulting Group Inc., and Cari-Euro Travel.

Since 1998, Marino has specialized in the areas of Retail and Restaurant leasing, dispositions, and site selection with several large clients including Sorrentino's Restaurants, L'Azia Restaurants, Hudson's Tap House, The Mongolie Grill and the Oil City Entertainment Group.

Marino's professional involvement in the Edmonton's business community has been extensive over the past decade and continues to be involved in community events, including the Cumberland/Oxford Community League.

He has played and coached soccer and football, and is an avid travel buff with extensive knowledge of the Caribbean and Europe.

I've always enjoyed working with a variety of people from all walks of life", says Marino. "This business gives me a great opportunity to do just that, and also to serve all my clients with individuality and ongoing attention."
